(a) whether the working population in the informal sector totalling some 36 crores, comprises of 93% of total workforce in the country;

(b) if so, the reasons for a paltry allocation of Rs. 13 crores for the year 2004-05 to cover the unorganised sector Social Security Scheme, as compared to a whopping Rs. 500 crores to cover Employees Pension Scheme for the organized sector; and

(c) whether this paltry allocation of Rs. 13 crores includes social welfare schemes for plantation workers in Assam?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI K. CHANDRASEKHAR RAO): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Rs. 600/- crores have been sanctioned towards Employees Pension Scheme during 2004-05. As the implementation of the Unorganised Sector Workers Social Security Scheme, 2004 is at standstill and the scheme is being re-worked, no allocations of funds were made during that year.

(c) The Central Government has sanctioned Rs. 11.20 crore @ 1.16% of the pay of the Provident Fund Member towards Family Pension Scheme under the Assam Tea Plantation Provident Fund during the year 2004-05. Another 2.20 crore has been sanctioned during the same year towards the Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme under Assam Tea Plantation Provident Fund Scheme.
